

The airwaves belong to the people, not corporations. Further deregulation of the media will allow a few large corporations control everything that we the people will see, read, hear, etc. This is wrong!